

English tenses

5. Simple Future Tense: used to describe a future action or event.

Example:

Affirmative: I will play soccer tomorrow.

Negative: I will not play soccer tomorrow.

Interrogative: Will I play soccer tomorrow?

6. Future Continuous Tense: used to describe an ongoing action in the future.

Example:

Affirmative: I will be playing soccer at this time tomorrow.

Negative: I will not be playing soccer at this time tomorrow.

Interrogative: Will I be playing soccer at this time tomorrow.

7. Present Perfect Tense: used to express that an action happened at an unspecified time before now. The exact time is not important.

Example:

Affirmative: I have played soccer.

Negative: I have not played soccer.

Interrogative: Have I played soccer?

8. Present Perfect Continuous Tense: used to describe an ongoing action that started in the past and continues up to the present.

Example:

Affirmative: I have been playing soccer for an hour.

Negative: I have not been playing soccer for an hour.

Interrogative: Have I been playing soccer for an hour?

9. Past Perfect Tense: used to describe a completed action before another action in the past.

Example:

Affirmative: I had played soccer before I went to the party.

Negative: I had not played soccer before I went to the party.

Interrogative: Had I played soccer before I went to the party?